

We need diversity in ownership so one corporation cannot monopolize our media system. There needs to be a place for all opinions, diverse programming, and the avoidance of pushing on agenda. It would limit the American peoples access to information and allow entities to promote their view point and bias on topics from the news to politics to the arts!! Corporations and individuals should be limited in the number of media outlets they are allowed to procure and manage.